:: JUDGMENT ::

HON'BLE SHRI JUSTICE NOOTY RAMAMOHANA RAO

W.P. No.16250 of 1998

Though the writ petitioner has questioned the orders of appointment issued in favour of the second respondent on the plea that he secured more marks than her, but however, in the counter affidavit, it has been made clear that the second respondent came to be appointed because of the principles of reservation in favour of women candidates being followed by the State. The writ petitioner being a male candidate, cannot make any grievance of the selection and appointment of the second respondent against the posts reserved to be filled in by the women candidates.

In this view of the matter, the writ petition is dismissed, but however, without costs.
